

Confidential Policy

We will respect your privacy

The coaches, helpers and committee of the club have a responsibility to all gymnasts and their families to respect confidentiality.

The coaches, helpers and committee will be discreet about all information made known to them. All records relating to the gymnast attending the club will be kept secure and accessed only when there is a need to know.

Coaches, helpers or members of the committee will treat with confidentiality any matter discussed with them which relates to a gymnast or member of the Club.
